

UNITING AMERICA - A Timely Interview For The Week Of July 4th

Source: Victoria Medina

Dated: Jun. 24, 2015

Featuring the book “ONE NATION, ONE MISSION, ONE PROMISE: The continuing journey of fulfilling the promises made on July 4th 1776 by VICTORIA MEDINA

NEW YORK -- In March the race for the office of President of the United States took off and we are a year and a half away from our next historic Election Day. From the day the first nominee entered the race to Election Day, Americans will be inundated with what makes us different and divided, with each politician attacking the others.

In a time when awful, violent events around the country have been in the news, especially recently in Charleston, South Carolina, Victoria Medina’s book, One Nation, One Mission, One Promise, provides a very important, healing and positive message for all Americans, a message of unity and celebration.

What does unite us? When you look across the breadth of America you will always see the diversity of humanity. We have different cultures, different religions, different family histories, yet America has a common thread that hold us all together – The Charters of Freedom: The Declaration of Independence, The Constitution, and The Bill of Rights.

Victoria Medina, took these beautiful and sacred documents, along with her original photographic art from The American Spirit Exhibit (which sells for hundreds of dollars on her VictoriaMedinaGallery.com website), and added her original poetry and prose to make reading the book a really special experience. The experience is not a feeling of a history lesson, but is rather that of a homecoming for Americans and an introduction to the United States of America for visitors and guests.

Victoria has been very moved by the responses to the book she has been receiving from “Wow, we need this!” to “Everyone should read this book.”

“Few artists have the talent to create both visual images and words that combine to lift the spirit, but your impressive photographic art book One Nation, One Mission, One Promise has done just that. Your unique visual images combined with insightful poetry and prose inspires everyone to look at our history with fresh eyes.” -GEOFFREY R. BERWIND, Artistic Director, Historic Philadelphia, Inc.

When the smoke clears, and it always does at the end of every crisis, the sacred documents of The Charters of Freedom unite everyone from all walks of life.

SAMPLE QUESTIONS:

What made you consider a book around The Charters of Freedom?

Why a photographic art and poetry book?

What are the responses you have been receiving from people who have read the book?

How do you get people to begin thinking from a place of celebration to solution, instead of from anger?

What is the great American Challenge, and how can people get involved?

VISIT US AT: <http://www.victoriamedina.com/> & <http://www.onenationonemissiononepromise.com/>

AVAILABILITY: Nationwide via telephone or Skype from June 25th

To schedule an interview or get more information:
CALL 646-499-6958 or EMAIL greetings@victoriamedina.com

--- End ---

Email Click to contact author
Phone 646-499-6958
City/Town New York City
State/Province New York
Country United States
Industry Arts, Books
Tags july 4th, Interviews, author, photography, inspiration
Link <http://prlog.org/12469034>

Scan this QR Code with your SmartPhone to-
* Read this news online
* Contact author
* Bookmark or share online